2026 ANNUAL MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

TECHNICAL PAPERS AND POSTERS

Technology is a driving force in the cast urethane industry, leading to new processes and products, refining the established ones, maximizing investments in time, money, talent and materials. Join your peers in staying on top of the trends and ground-breaking discoveries with Technical Paper presentations and poster viewing.

FAILED PARTS COMPETITION

Teams will evaluate failed parts submitted by PMA members to determine their mode of failure. While the teams compete, an overview of each part will be discussed as well as general failure mechanisms. After discussion, a winning team will be chosen. The room will be open to watch and learn, as well.

JOHN JARVIS MEMORIAL GOLF TOURNAMENT

While this is a popular social outing for colleagues and spouses to experience, the John Jarvis Memorial Golf Tournaments is also a fundraiser to support the Mother Cabrini Hospital in Chicago. The PMA has made significant contributions over the years to the facility that cared for PMA Member John Jarvis during his battle with cancer. Join us this year at the Baytown Golf Club and enjoy beautiful views while playing along the Gulf of Mexico and a very playable course for players of all abilities.

JOHN JARVIS MEMORIAL TEXAS HOLD'EM POKER TOURNAMENT

Join PMA attendees and guests for PMA's second annual John Jarvis Memorial Texas Hold'em Poker Tournament! The tournament will be capped at the first 50 players to sign-up. This social event will be held on Sunday, April 27th at 2:30pm. Light snacks and beverages will be provided for players.

KEYNOTE AND TRACK SESSIONS

Sessions are subject to change

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

► Monday, June 15 - 9:30am – 10:30am - Michael Hingson, Michael Hingson Group

On September 11, 2001, a blind man escaped the World Trade Center by walking down 78 flights of stairs with his guide dog. Days later, America fell in love with Mike and Roselle and the special bond that helped them both survive one of the country's darkest days. After 9/11 Mike Hingson began receiving requests to speak to audiences about his experience on that day as well as to discuss his thoughts on Life and dealing with change. He has become a recognized internationally acclaimed public speaker who captivates audiences with his personal and compelling story. He also teaches his listeners new ways of looking at life and their worlds by helping them to visualize from his viewpoint how to live, function and thrive. He demonstrates through stories and personal examples how anyone can be a leader and become more successful in whatever they attempt to do. First and foremost, Mike personally connects with every audience member by drawing them into his world and showing them how to use their own inner tools more effectively than they ever thought possible. Mike speaks to and has expertise on topics including leadership, teamwork, trust, inclusion, public speaking, disabilities, survival, change and much more.

SALES & MARKETING TRACK

► Monday, June 15 - 10:40am – 11:40am

Making Your Sales & Marketing Tools Work for You -
Becky Bracy, COIM USA Inc.

This presentation explores Predictable Performance as a data-driven approach to overcome the challenges of unpredictable business outcomes, especially in sales and marketing. Whether it is your CRM tool or your website, all must work to bring forth a return on your investment of time and money. During this session, we will discuss where to begin your CRM journey including key factors needed to make the most of your investment. Along this journey, we will also discuss ways to incorporate marketing and business tools to further enhance user experience and drive efficiency and growth for your organization. Finally, our journey will close with a focus on continuous improvement and evolution of your CRM tool to help keep your team effective and efficient.

► Monday, June 15 - 12:45pm – 1:45pm

How Brand & Customer Experience Build Trust Anywhere -
Angela Morgan, Enduro Pipeline Services

In technical, safety-driven industries, trust is not built through campaigns — it is built through experience.

In this session, Angela Morgan shares practical lessons from a demanding, field-driven environment where reliability and customer service are non-negotiable. From digital clarity to approachable communication to creative conference engagement, she explores how small, intentional touch-points shape how customers experience your company.

Attendees will leave with practical insights they can apply immediately to strengthen brand alignment, improve customer experience, and build lasting trust.

► Tuesday, June 16 - 10:45am – 11:45am

AI Search, Your Brand, and Your Buyer: A Practical Guide for Industrial Marketers -
Diona Kidd, Knowmad Digital Marketing

AI is already shaping how your buyers find and evaluate suppliers — have you found out what it's saying about you? Learn how AI is showing up in your buyers' research process, how to monitor and influence what it says about your brand, and a practical framework for what to act on now, what to watch, and what to ignore.

EHS & REGULATORY TRACK

► Monday, June 15 - 10:40am – 11:40am

Regulatory Presentation and Q&A -
Don Gallo, Gallo Law; Mike Kocak, CUE Inc.; Chris Goeloe, Anderson Development Co.

This session covers regulations that impact the industry including TSCA MOCA Risk Evaluation.

► Monday, June 15 - 12:45pm – 1:45pm

Sustainability in the Polyurethane Industry -
Piper Howell, Stellana; Chris Goeloe, Anderson Development Co.

This session covers the increasing sustainability related requirements for companies.

► Tuesday, June 16 - 10:40am – 11:40am

MOCA Safe Handling in the Casting Shop -
Piper Howell, Stellana; SKC Inc.

PMA advocates MOCA users to follow their safe handling guidelines. This is a joint session with PMA and SKC Inc. which will provide information on MOCA safe handling including urinalysis.

OPERATIONS TRACK

► Monday, June 15 - 10:40am – 11:40am

Quality Methodologies on the Production Floor -
Chris Weikert, Superior Tire & Rubber

Producing consistent parts requires a number of best practices and utilizing quality tools at the point of manufacture to evaluate sources of variability and confirm quality of parts produced. This presentation will look at key manufacturing steps, such as material prep, temperature control, and mold prep, and the impact when things go wrong. It will also overview potential methods for evaluating production at the manufacturer level, such as confirming ratio, material quality, moisture and NCO titrations.

► Monday, June 15 - 12:45pm – 1:45pm

Mold Design Panel Discussion -
Ian Laskowitz, Polycoat Products, Trevor Williams, UMP

Efficiently designing a mold for prototyping and efficiency is key for getting parts to test and market quickly. This session will look at general mold design feedback, an overview of 3D printing as a way of getting prototypes made at reasonable cost, and high-volume manufacturability.

► Tuesday, June 16 - 10:45am – 11:45am

Dos and Don'ts of Commissioning a New Casting Machine -
Ryan Anderson, Fimor North America

Machine vs hand cast is a key decision for any processor. When implementing a new meter mix machine, this topic will cover the lessons learned of what to do, and equally important what not to do to ensure a smooth implementation and scale-up.
